COURSE SYLLABUS

School Year	2025 - 2026
Subject	Chinese as a Second Language - CSL
Grade Level	Gr. 5
Teacher	Samantha Hsu
Email	shsu@dishs.tp.edu.tw

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This beginner-to-intermediate level course in Chinese as a Second Language (CSL) is designed to support learners in systematically expanding their vocabulary and mastery of sentence patterns. Through an integrated approach, students will develop core language skills—including listening, speaking, reading, and writing—while progressively building competence in real-life communication. The curriculum adopts a spiral-up structure, wherein vocabulary and grammar are introduced and then revisited and reinforced through varied linguistic contexts. This recursive learning model not only facilitates long-term retention but also supports the internalization of key language structures. In addition to language instruction, the course includes a range of cultural components such as the study of idiomatic expressions, the historical origins of Chinese characters, and practical skills like typing in Chinese. These cultural elements are interwoven into the language curriculum to enrich learners' intercultural understanding and engagement with the language. The course is student-centered, placing a strong emphasis on communicative competence and authentic language use. A variety of instructional materials—including multimedia resources, real-life texts, and digital tools—will be employed to create a meaningful, contextualized, and interactive learning environment. By the end of the course, students will have developed a solid foundation in modern Chinese, along with the skills and strategies needed to continue their language learning journey with confidence and effectiveness.
